Because D'AMICI Salon is made up of independent stylists and makeup artist's prices may vary. It is up to the individual stylists and makeup artist to set the final price. The prices listed above are an average price set. Due to length, and amount of hair, prices may vary and are subject to change depending on what is requested and the time that it will take to achieve the look.

At D'AMICI Salon, we understand that timing is everything on your special day. We also look forward to accommodating you and your wedding party, therefore we recommend booking your appointment for you and your party in advance.

No salon promotions are valid with special occasion styles.
